

PROCLAMATION

BY THE

Governor of the State of Texas

41-1058

REPRODUCED FROM THE HOLDINGS OF THE
TEXAS STATE ARCHIVES

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

I disapprove and am vetoing and filing with the Secretary of State House Bill 179 for the following reasons:

1. This Bill provides for a method to discharge a tax lien on real property without the payment of the taxes, interest and penalties due on a simple affidavit that no fraud or collusion existed which is merely to be submitted to the Commissioners' Court with no action required by it or the Comptroller.

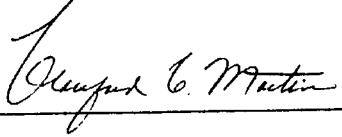

2. House Bill 179 fails to provide a method for the collection of delinquent taxes, interest and penalties due on land after the tax collector has issued a tax certificate relieving the property from liability for taxes.

House Bill 179 was received in the Governor's Office on May 28, 1965 - less than 10 days prior to the adjournment of the Regular Session of the 59th Legislature - and in accordance with Article IV Section 14 of the Constitution of Texas, the Bill, together with this Proclamation, is filed with the Secretary of State.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name officially and caused the seal of State to be affixed hereto at Austin this 18 day of June, 1965.
